

Startup image with logo of home food.

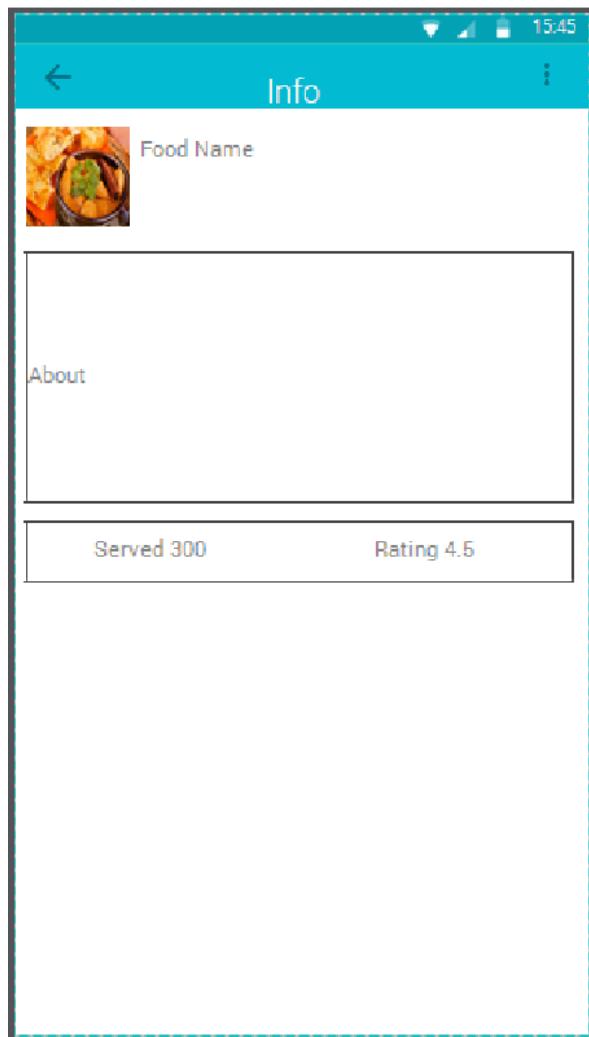

This Screen mainly contains Daily Menu like Lunch, Dinner, Backed,Sweets (Max Five Tabs) etc. Starting image for offers or some inspiration message, and food image with single or multiple (Max 4 with one big and 3 small). chef special button to show all food items of chef.

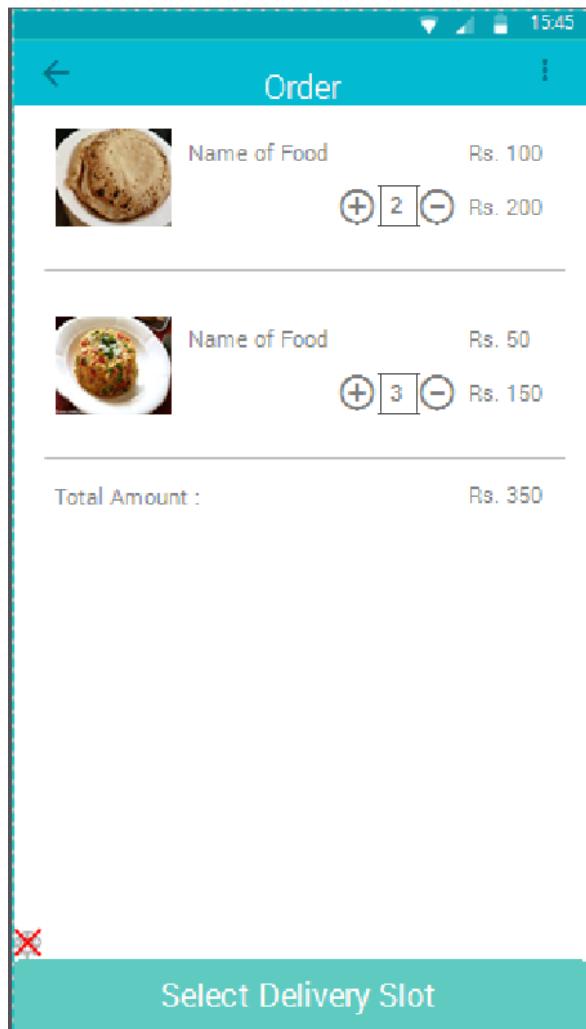

Most like second button to make list of liked food by individual. third for happy with this on the day. One small image of chef, and name of the food. buttons to add and remove number of items. add to cart default button and it changes to checkout if item is added and main checkout button with number of total items (only appears atleast one item added).

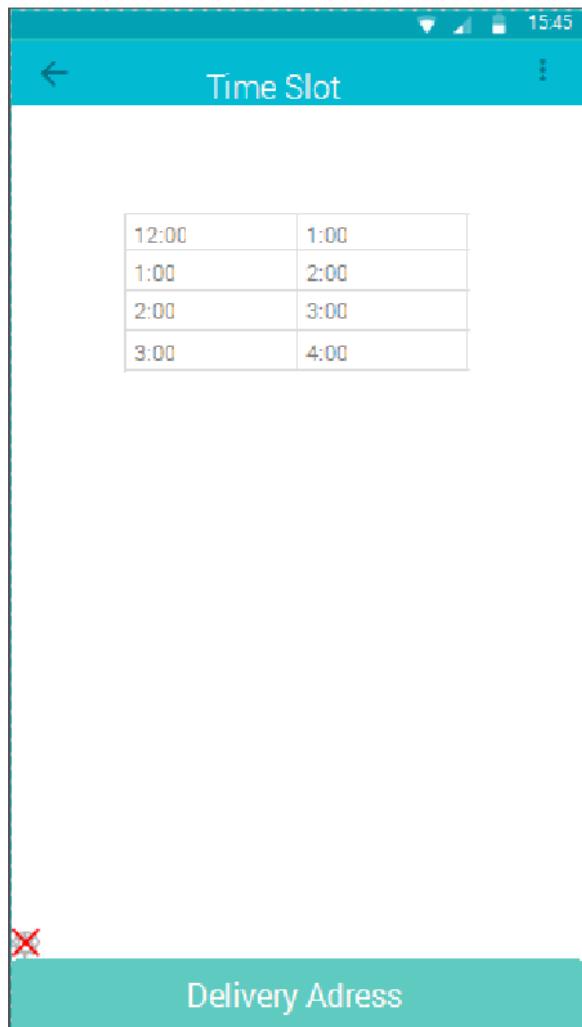

This screen will be open if user clicks chef special in previous screen. This screen shows the information about Chef and all chef special items in list. Overall rating of the chef.

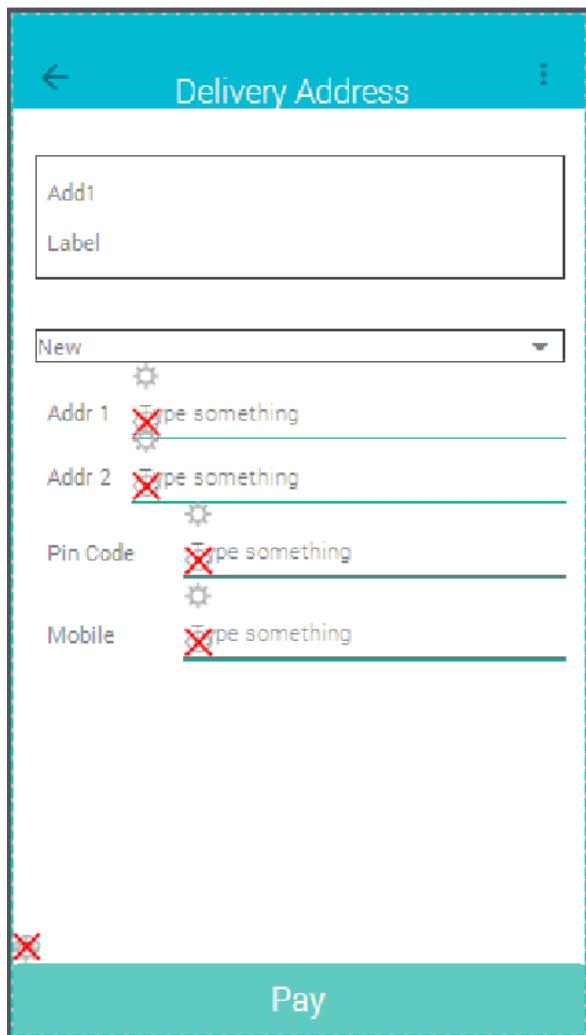

This Screen for individual food discription and quantity serverd upto now avarage rating of users. image of food and name of the of the food.

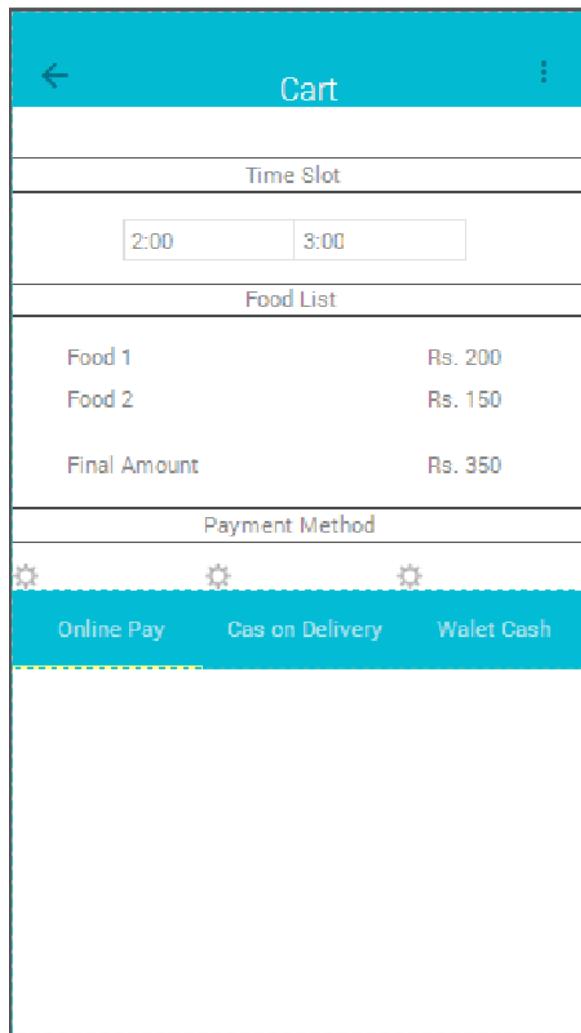

This screen comes when checkout button clicked which in second screen. this screen contains the information of selected food items with individual image, quantity of food, individual rate and total rate with select time slot button.

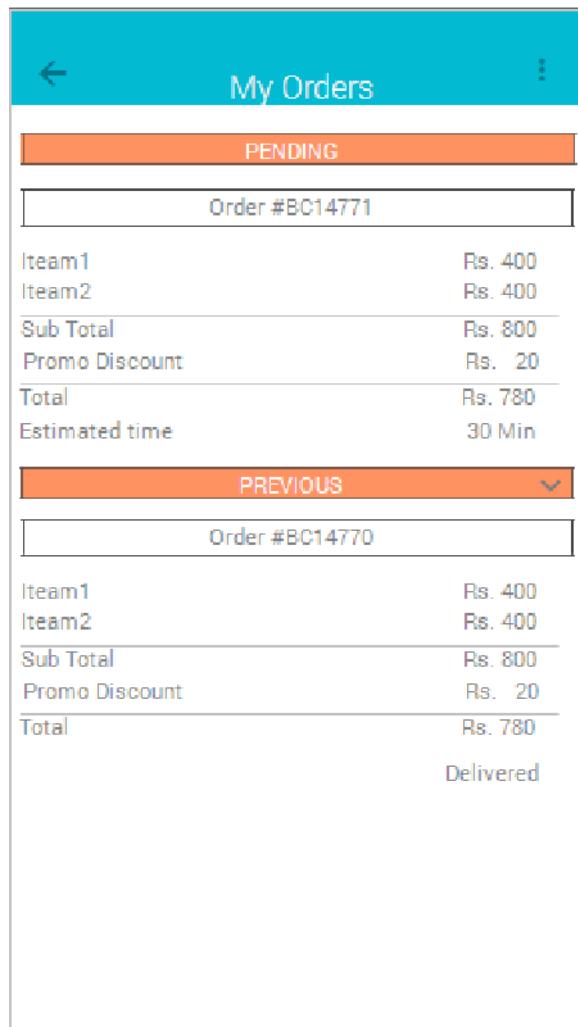

This screen for time slot selection. It contains the information of time slots in small table form. this screen will be removed in feature.

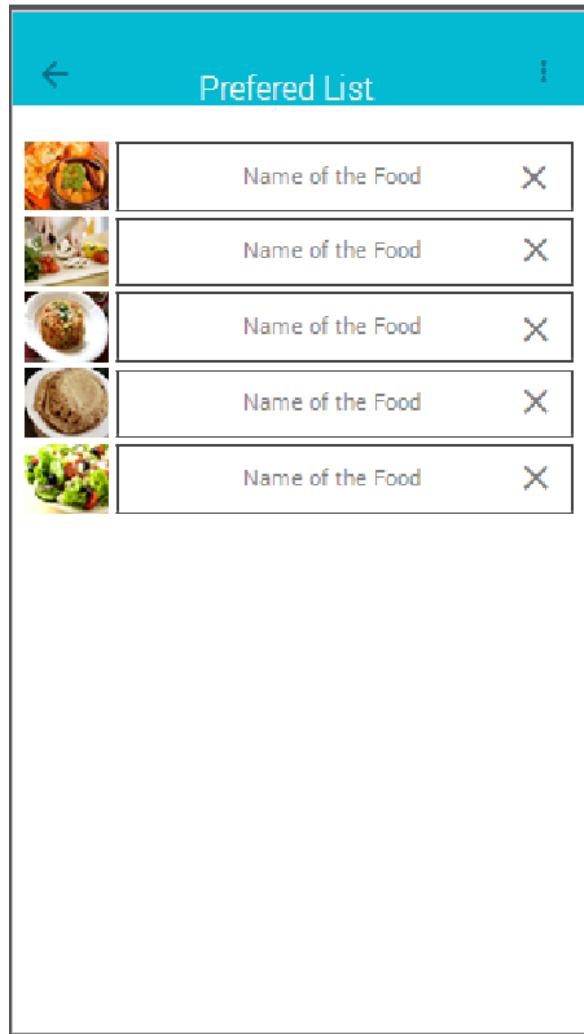

This screen to add details of address to deliver. With two lines of address and pincode and mobile number. List of added address shown above new address selection for direct selection already added address. one Pay buuton.

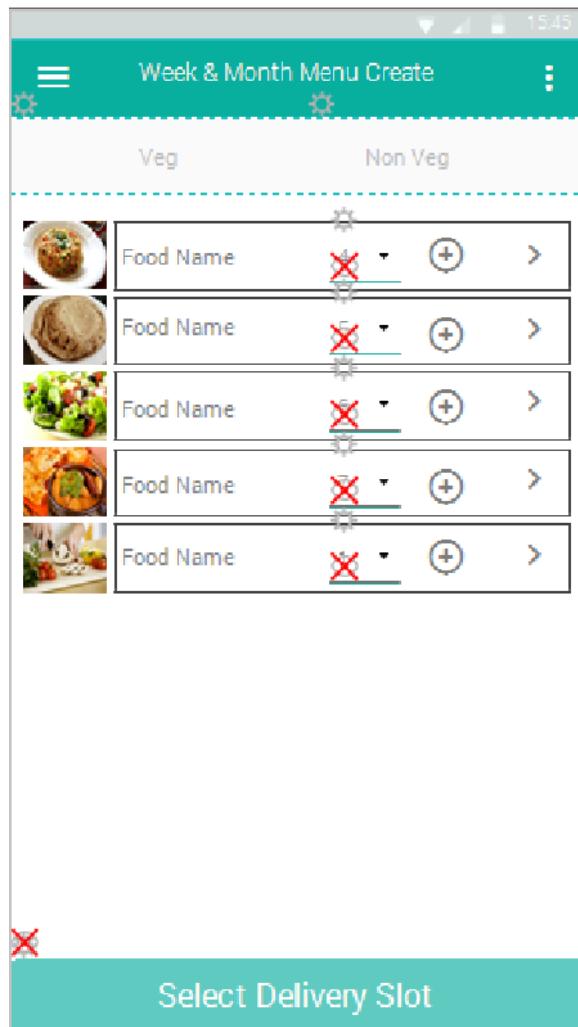

This screen contains Final info order, Time slot and item list with amount and type of payment.

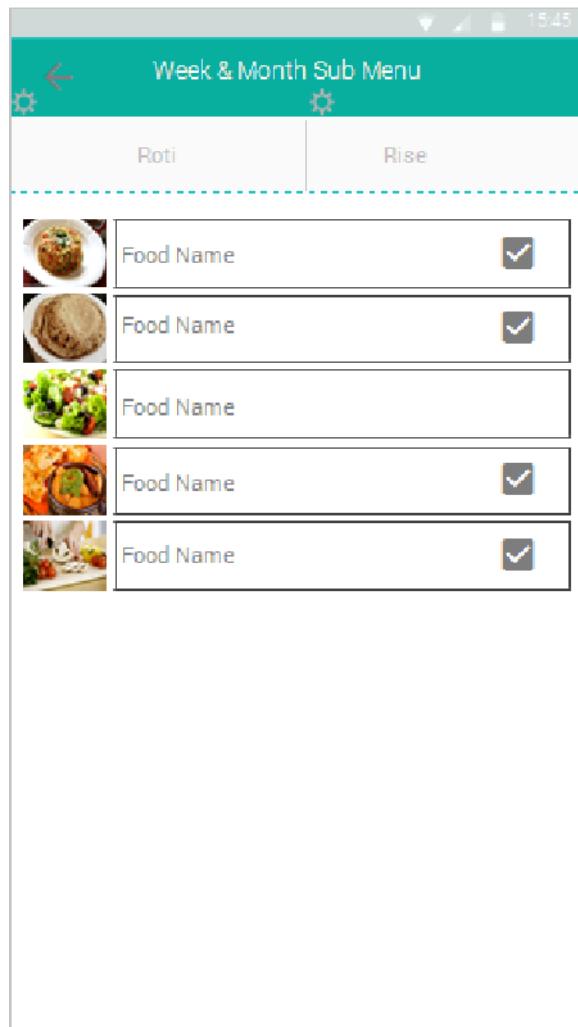

This screen comes after payment or by selection in menu list. This screen contains the info of order placed, pending and previous if it selected. Each contains the info of food item and its price.

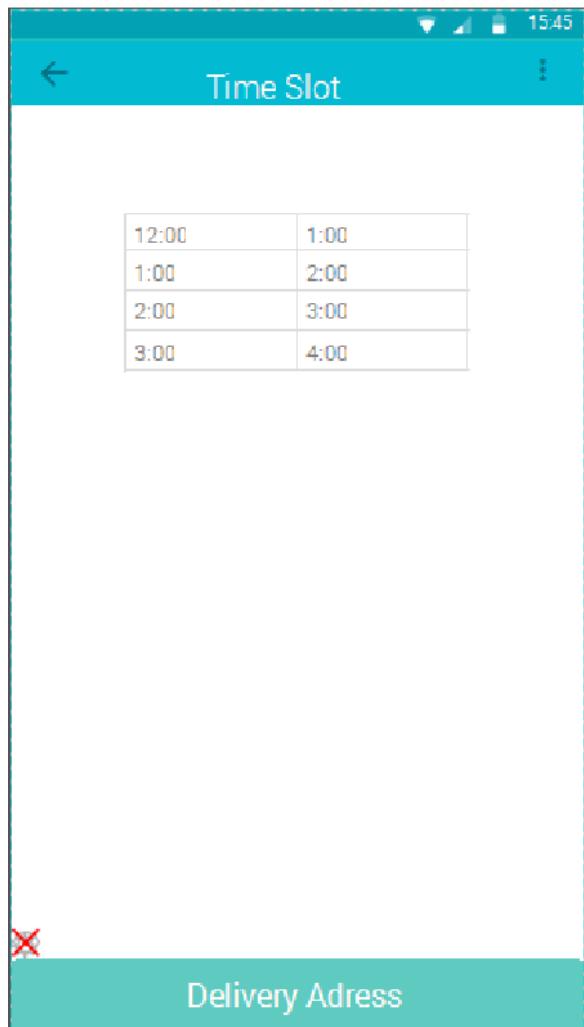

Information on this screen comes as per user most preferd food which is selcted in second screen. one photo of food and name of the food and option to delete if it selected.

This screen will be loaded when user clicks on left menu option of long duration orders. In this two tabs will Veg and Non veg tabs in each tab small image of food and name of the food week day selection and add button and option to open list of food items in a meal. selection will be stored for that user. button to select time slot for delivery.

This screen comes if user selected meal to change food items to meal. this will be saved to each meal. this screen contains image of food, name of food and selection and deselection option.

← Delivery Address

Add1
Label

New

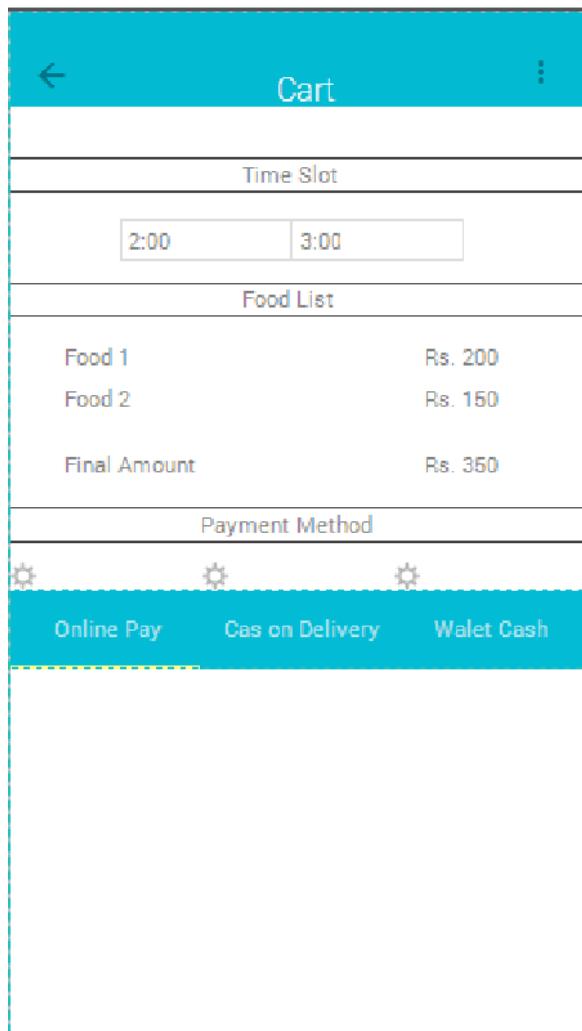

Addr 1 Type something

Addr 2 Type something

Pin Code Type something

Mobile Type something

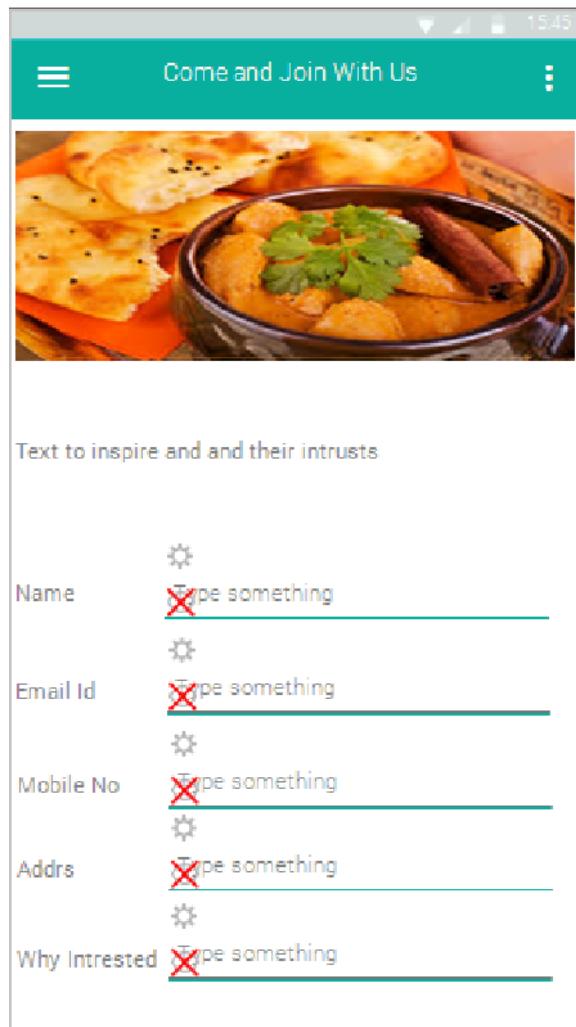

X Pay

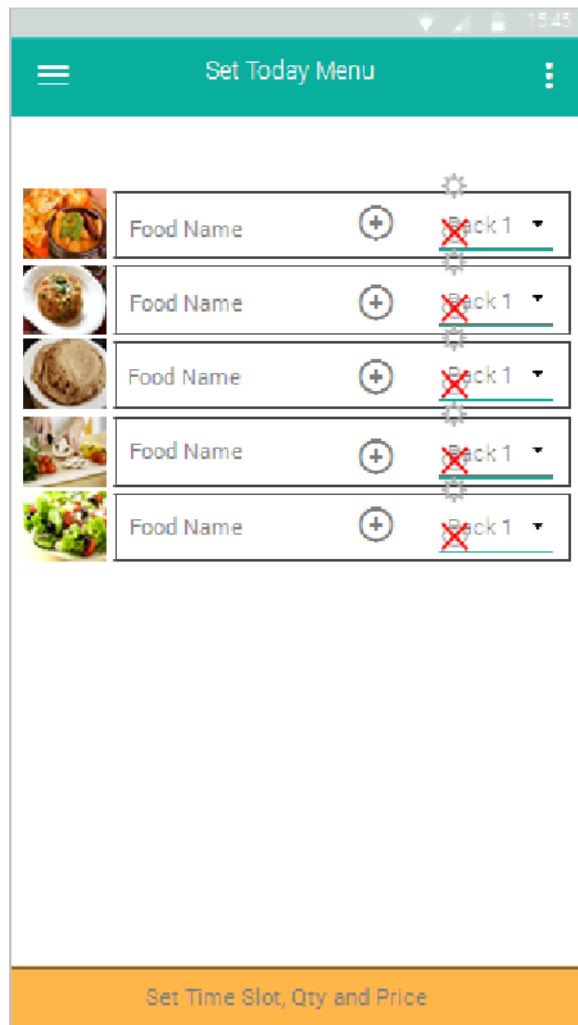

These screens are same for long ns single orders.

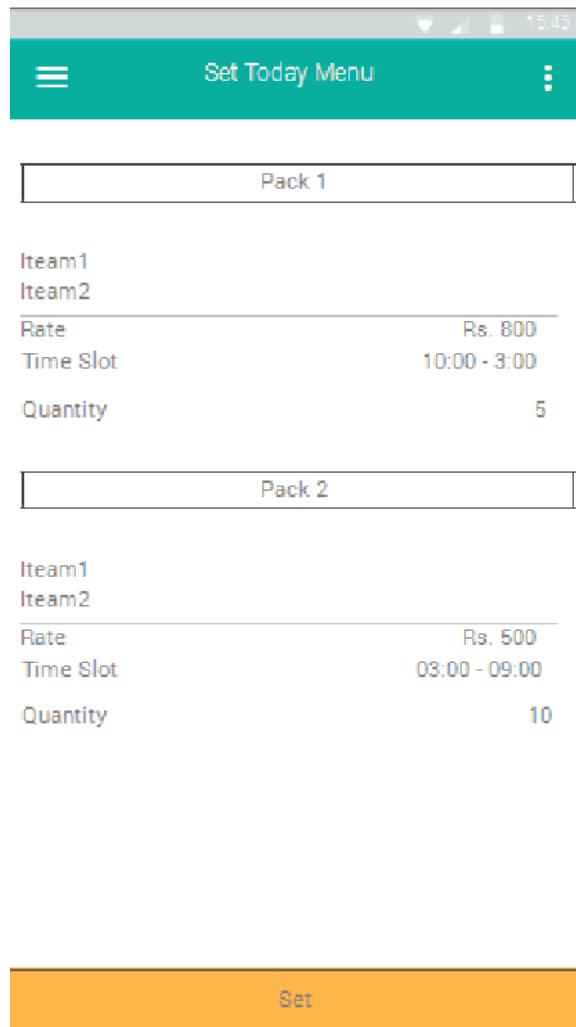

This screen comes when user clicks on side menu of status of long food booking. It shows information of food deliverd. In this screen Food image, meal name, date to deliver, and staus of deliverd with total meal deliverd will be there.

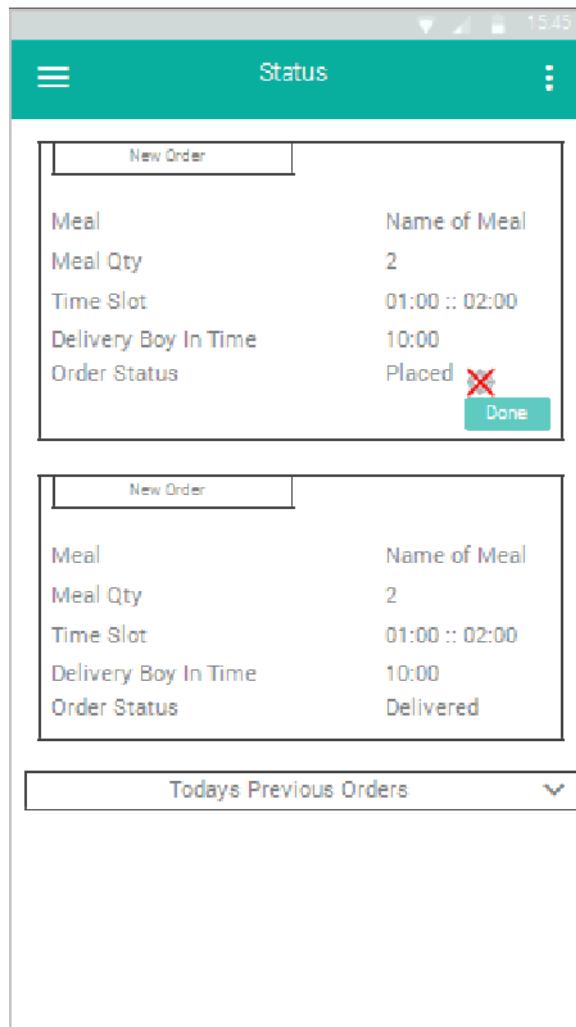

This screen for people who are interested, they can register by this screen. This information will be stored in Database. this screen with one image, some inspiration text and details of user.

This screen for who cook food. In this screen image of food, Name of the food and add button and meal pack number ans set button.

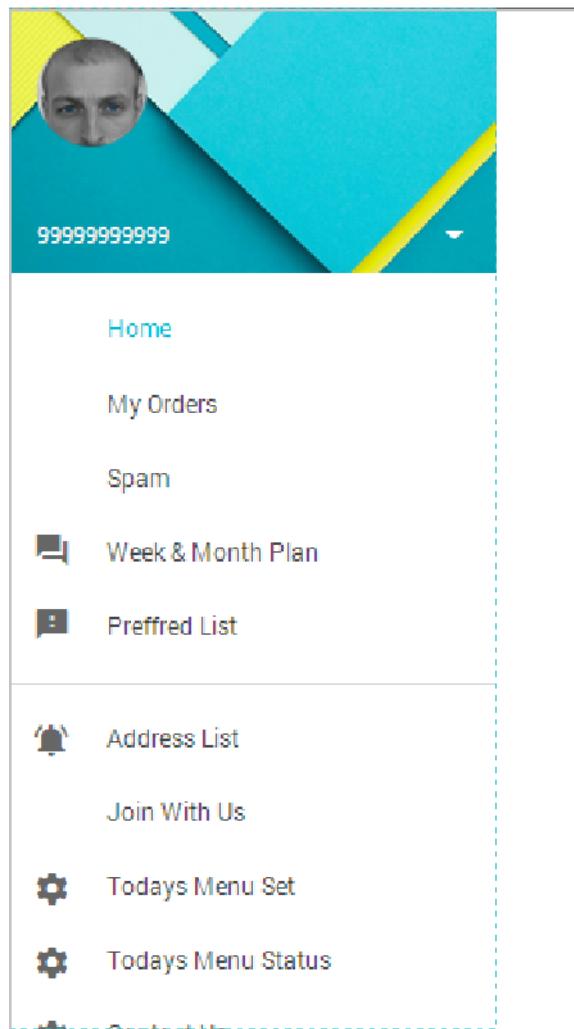

This screen to set final quantity and price of the food. In this Pack separation with food details, time slot selection and set meal price and quantity.

This screen for food makers this screen shows order placed, button to update it is delivered from them and status of all orders for that day. The above three screens only for food makers .

All these screens will be enabled after registration conformation.

Side Menu

One admin panel, verification OTP option, Payment gateway, server to maintain database. Intimation messages if user connected to net.

